
2020 U.S. Figure Skating Championships January 2019 News

This is the first of our eNews editions that is going to figure skating fans, USFSC 2020 ticket package purchasers, those who have signed up to receive USFSC 2020 news via our website (ncskate2020.com), and other interested parties. We will only be sending these newsletters once per month for the next year leading into the 2020 U.S. Championships. Our goal is to provide current information on the preparations for, and latest activities in support of, the 2020 U.S. Figure Skating Championships. We hope you find these eNews editions helpful. We welcome your suggestions for inclusions in our eNews, as well as your input and feedback, at info@ncskate2020.com

Greensboro to Host U.S. Figure Skating Championships for Third Time

In case you missed it, U.S. Figure Skating announced on Tuesday, November 27, 2018, that Greensboro, NC, has been chosen to host the 2020 U.S. Figure Skating Championships. This marks the third time in nine years that Greensboro will serve as host, as both the 2011 and 2015 U.S. Championships were held in the city. The Greensboro Coliseum Complex will again be the home of the Championships, which will be held Monday, January 20, through Sunday, January 26, 2020. New Format for the 2020 Championships

The 2020 U.S. Figure Skating Championships in Greensboro will be the first edition of a new format for the event. The 2020 event will focus on Junior and Senior skaters only. The Senior Division is also referred to as the Championship Division and includes the very top skaters in the country (and in some cases, the world). Athletes will be vying to be crowned national champion in each of the four disciplines: Ladies, Men, Pairs, and Ice Dance. There will be a total of 12 national champions and medals will be awarded for first through fourth place in each discipline in both the Senior and Junior Divisions. The 2020 Championships will also include the first-ever U.S. Figure Skating National High Performance Development Camp for Juvenile, Intermediate, and Novice Skaters. The camp will be held immediately after the conclusion of the 2020 U.S. Championships, from January 26-29, 2020.

NC Delegation in Detroit at USFSC 2019

North Carolina had a sizable delegation in Detroit last week for the 2019 U.S. Figure Skating Championships, held January 18-27, 2019, at the new Little Caesar's Arena. There were 16 attendees including representatives from USFSC 2020 major local sponsors the Greensboro Convention & Visitors Bureau, the Greensboro Coliseum Complex, WGHP Fox8, Graphic Visual Solutions, and Vela Agency. Delegation members were there to take notes on the various aspects of the Championships that would be helpful for Greensboro's planning for next year, and to assist with actual 2020 All-Event Ticket Package sales at the NC 2020 booth on the arena concourse. In addition, WGHP Fox8 did live news feeds from the event and taped various segments with athletes and celebrity skaters that will be used in the year-long promotional campaign to the 2020 U.S. Figure Skating Championships in Greensboro. Meanwhile, Vela Agency captured photos and video to be used in our USFSC 2020 social and digital media campaigns.

Members of the NC 2020 delegation included: Bonnie Boaz, Hill Carrow, Collins Lowder, and Paul Wylie, NC2020; Brian Ambuehl, Greensboro Convention & Visitors Bureau; Allison Ausley, Scott Johnson, and Greg Marsden, Greensboro Coliseum Complex; Kim Strable, Greensboro Sports Foundation; Jeff Fabrizio, Cindy Farmer, Kyle Gould, and Greg Ryder, WGHP Fox8; Bryan and Wendy Hall, Graphic Visual Solutions; and Chrystal Sills, Vela Agency.
