2020 U.S. Figure Skating Championships April 2019 News

Welcome back to the latest news from your local host team for the 2020 U.S. Figure Skating Championships, scheduled for January 20-26, 2020 at the Greensboro Coliseum Complex in Greensboro, NC. We have made a great deal of progress on preparations for the big event and are excited to provide you with some updates.

All-Event Packages: Good Seats, Going Fast!

Currently only All-Event Ticket Packages are on sale for the 2020 USFSC. (An All-Event Ticket Package includes tickets for every competitive event of the Championships plus the Skating Spectacular.) However, that is about to change soon—expected to be in less than three weeks, when Weekend Ticket Packages are projected to go on sale on Friday, May 17, 2019 (tent.)

Right now, all the best seats in the house are open and available for those purchasing All-Event Ticket Packages. Once Weekend Package sales get underway, a significant number of those best seats will be included within the Weekend Packages.

Therefore, the very best remaining opportunity for you to guarantee yourself the best seating available for the 2020 Championships is to purchase an All-Event Ticket Package between now and May 17. So, don't wait any longer. Get your All-Event Ticket Package now and rest easy, assured that you have the very best possible seats for America's greatest ice event. Click here to review seating options for All-Event Ticket Packages and to make a purchase.

Weekend Ticket Packages: Coming Soon!

While the date is not yet 100% confirmed, officials at U.S. Figure Skating and executives with the Local Organizing Committee, are working hard to have Weekend Ticket Packages ready for sale by Friday, May 17. Every person receiving this email newsletter will receive an eblast sometime in the first two weeks of May, confirming the on-sale date and time for the launch of Weekend Ticket Packages. On the date that Weekend Packages go on sale, you will receive an eblast with information and a link for you to be able to make your Weekend Ticket Package purchase.

The Weekend Ticket Package will include six ticketed events, including one Friday night session, three Saturday sessions, and two Sunday sessions. The final session on Sunday evening will be the Skating Spectacular. All other sessions will include competition featuring the Senior-level skaters, the top skaters in the U.S. While U.S. Figure Skating and NBC are working to finalize the actual schedule, the five competitive sessions in the Weekend Package will include Opening Ceremonies & Ladies Free Skate, Men's Short Program, Men's Free Skate, Pairs Free Skate, and Ice Dance Free Dance. Of the five competitions in the package, four will be medal rounds where U.S. Champions will be crowned.

How many of you noticed that there have been changes made to our initial logo for the Championships?! The previous logo in the third line had "Championships 2020" in two different shades of blue, while the fourth line had "Greensboro, North Carolina" all in black. The new logo, which is the final logo for the Championships (with the possible exception of the addition of an event title sponsor) puts "Championships 2020" in one color of blue, and the bottom line is now "Greensboro, NC" nicely in a green color to correspond with the name of the host city.

Recent Prize Winners Announced

At the 2019 State Games of North Carolina Figure Skating Competition in Indian Trail, NC, a drawing was held for prizes for the 2020 U.S. Figure Skating Championships. The winner of the grand prize, which is two weekend ticket packages to the 2020 event, is James Moore from Travelers Rest, SC! The second prize winner is Davie Bacot from Irmo, SC, receiving an attractive, lined 2020 USFSC embroidered jacket. Winner of the third prize, an official 2020 USFSC t-shirt, is Adalyn Barnett from Monroe, NC. We would like to thank everyone who entered the drawing while attending the event, and we hope to see you at the 2020 USFSC.
