The U.S. Figure Skating Championships, the largest and most prestigious ice sport competition in the country, return to the Greensboro Coliseum Complex in Greensboro, NC, January 20-26, 2020. The city of Greensboro and the state of North Carolina have proven to be such great hosts, with large and enthusiastic crowds, that U.S. Figure Skating has chosen to bring its championships to the region for the third time in less than a decade.

There's nothing like the drama of a live skating competition -- the skill, the beauty, the music, the costumes, the amazing athletes, and their competitive spirit. Greensboro invites you to join fans from across the country and around the globe for the excitement and pageantry of the 2020 U.S. Championships at America's most fan-friendly venue for the event, where you can find competition, practice, and FanFest all in one building, under one roof.
