2020 Toyota U.S. Figure Skating Championships FanFest Starts Tuesday!

GREENSBORO, North Carolina (January 20, 2020) –Competition begins on Tuesday, January 21 at the 2020 Toyota U.S. Figure Skating Championships with junior competition taking center stage. And with the official start of the championship FanFest also begins. FanFest will include 20,000 feet of FREE interactive games, live music, contests, entertainment and even a mini-sheet of ice for exhibitions and medalist ceremonies! Even Elsa, Anna and Olaf from Disney's Frozen will be on hand daily for autographs and meet & greets in the "Frozen Zone." (See full schedule below of activities.)

FanFest is open January 21 through January 25. FanFest is located in the Greensboro Coliseum Special Events Center. Right next door in the east wing of the Coliseum's Special Events Center venue, fans will be able to watch official practice sessions for all competitors. FanFest and Practice Ice viewing are free and open to the public.

Single-session tickets can be purchased at Ticketmaster.com and the Greensboro Coliseum Box Office. For more information on the 2020 Toyota U.S. Figure Skating Championships, please visit ncskate2020.com.
